

CELEBRATE MOKUM ON THE 8TH FLOOR

Rooftop garden GAPP

MY STORY

I am GAPP. Born from friendship, raised in Mokum.

My story begins with my blood brother Gabbe Scheltema, a true Amsterdammer. In 1957, he was one of the founders of Hotel Casa, a unique hotel concept with a clear mission: affordable housing for students in the city.

Thanks to Gabbe, the name GAPP was born (friend, buddy, gabber) and the love for Mokum. This legend lives on in GAPP, Amsterdam's green rooftop garden.

GAPP is the place where Mokum is celebrated and new friendships are made. Here, you toast until sunset.

Mokums dictionary

Before you step up to the 8th floor, it might be handy to freshen up your Mokum lingo a bit.

So practice your “Gappie,” know that a “keilertje” isn’t an instrument but a nice big glass of beer, and that “bruin fruit” simply means something golden and crispy is coming your way.

H^SSEB^SSIE

a little drink

JOTTEM

cool, fantastic

HELEM^^L IN DE LOREM

completely wasted, confused

BRUIN FRUIT
